Goods that Everybody Wants

At just the time they are most wanted and at the lowest prices compatible with good qualities. These are what we try to give to you at all times, and what we are specially determined to offer during the coming week.

Cloaks.

Money was what the manufacturer wanted, and Cleaks were what he had to offer for it. We had the money—we always keep a snug sum in readliness for just such an emergency—and we let him have it. Now we have the cleaks and the manufacturer the money. But before the week is over we shall have our money back again, and 10,000 ladies in Washington will each have a new cloak, bought just at the proper time, for about half its value, while several thousand more will be wishing that they had been fortunate enough to secure a share of these wonderful bargains, viz:

$6 for $4.25. Ladies' Jersey Jackets, made to sell at $6 each, will be offered at $4.25.
